

Terms and Conditions

1. Entry is open to all financial members of the Australian College of Critical Care Nurses, including the ACCCN Board of Directors.
2. Nominations will open Wednesday 9th October and closes 12mn on Sunday 17th November 2024.
3. Submissions must be accompanied by the ACCCN member's name and contact details if known. The nominee's membership number and contact details will be confirmed by ACCCN National Office from the ACCCN member database prior to progression in the judging process.
4. The supporters of the nomination agree to publication of their name in promotional material.
5. Entries will be judged by the ACCCN Board of Directors, and the winning nominee will be confirmed by the ACCCN Board. If a member of the ACCCN Board is nominated it will constitute a conflict of interest and they will remove themselves from the discussion and voting process when the judging occurs.
6. The ACCCN Board's decision will be final and the sponsoring company, Griffith University will be notified as soon as possible following notification and acceptance of the award by the winning nominee.
7. The competition winner will be notified directly by phone and confirmed in a letter to the winner from the ACCCN President.
8. The winner is strongly encouraged to attend the ASM in Christchurch from 9-11 April 2025 and is responsible for booking their flights and accommodation to attend the conference. Full program registration for the ASM will be provided by ACCCN as part of the prize.
9. The result will be announced at the ASM 2025 in Christchurch and promoted in ACCCN publications such as the newsletter, and on social media.
